If your family's financial situation has changed significantly since completing the 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you may request that these changes be taken into consideration. Information from this form, the student file, and supporting documentation will be used to determine if eligibility for financial aid can be recalculated. You must provide documentation in support of the information provided on this form.

I. Check the appropriate condition under which you are requesting a recalculation of financial aid eligibility for the 2024-2025 academic year.

_____ Parental Reduction in Income: One of the student's parents (or stepparent) income will be significantly less in 2023 or 2024 than in 2022 due to a change in job, reduction in the number of hours worked (company change or illness,) retirement, layoffs, continuing education, loss of benefits, etc.

_____ Student Reduction in Income: Student's or spouse's income will be significantly less in 2023 or 2024 than it was in 2022 due to a change in job, reduction in the number of hours worked (company change or illness,) retirement, layoffs, continuing education, loss of benefits, etc.

_____ Parental Separation, Divorce or Death: The student's family situation has changed due to one of these events.

_____ Student/Spouse Separation, Divorce or Death: The student's family situation has changed due to one of these events.

_____ Student Marriage: The student married after completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

_____ Other Significant Change in Financial Situation: One of the student's parents, the student or student's spouse experienced a significant change in financial situation not resulting from one of the above conditions.

II. Complete the enclosed 2024-2025 Institutional Verification Form (IVF) and collect all the documentation requested.

Note: Please submit a copy of your "actual" 2022 and 2023 IRS Tax Return or Tax Return Transcript for Recalculation Request.
